Dear Gary,

Odd thing is that on my Notecard I do have your apt. #.!

Thanks for the book.

I had heard nothing about the Groden/Livingstone lawsuit. Over what?

Thanks for confirming my recollection of the Brownson. A bit late for inclusion in that ms. but I'll file a copy with my copy of it.

I thought that the frames of Zapruder as the motorcade goes past and down
Elm St showed some back views of the cars and the people in them.

I believe the Altgens shows that what Donague made up is impossible in the time there could have been

I think it would be a good idea if you and Jerry McAnight could get to know each other while I'm still here. He and Hood will have a fairly large number of manuscripts about which almost nobody knows anything. They will be Hood's property.

He has taken over two books I'd started and a book he did on the Martin Luther King Poor Peoples Campaign is manufactured and will be in the stores soon. Very good job.

Hope you all have a good holiday and a fine year ahead.
